1. Definition:

- The Company” means Balkh Restaurant Limited.
- The Client” means the person or company hiring the function rooms at Balkh Restaurant Limited.
- Agreed Date” – A fixed date agreed by both The Company and The Client.

2. General:

- The level of noise, especially that produced by sound equipment must be kept at a reasonable volume, exclusively determined by The Company. The Company has a sound limiter installed due to being located in a residential area. If The Company feels the sound is still at an unacceptable level after giving a warning, The Company reserves the right to terminate the source
- The Company reserves the right to remove any persons from the venue who are considered objectionable.
- The Company reserves the right to stop any activity which it reasonably believes is likely to cause damage to the interior or exterior of the venue or to risk the safety of people at the Venue

9. Liability:

- Subject to its liability under the Hotel Proprietors Act 1956, The Company will not be liable or responsible for any jewellery, luggage, electrical devices, clothing or any other property of The Client brought onto the venue by The Client. The Company reserves the right to make changes to the interior and/or exterior of the Venue between the time the Company accepts the Client’s booking and the date of the Event. For example the Company may make changes to the décor and colour schemes of the function rooms and the Company cannot agree that the Venue and its surrounds will be free from additional structures (such as marquees or scaffolding)
